BAY OLYMPIC

2019 LOTTO NRFL Division 1

ROUND TWO

6 April 2019

Lloyd Elsmore Park

Chairperson's Message

On behalf of the Bucklands Beach AFC Executive Committee, I'd like to extend a very warm welcome to the Bay Olympic players, coaches, management, and supporters. We are very much looking forward to hosting you for what promises to be a fantastic afternoon of football.

Our boys made a cracking start to the season with the Reserves drawing 2-2 against last years champions and the Firsts taking a memorable 4-3 win in an extremely tense match (my hair was jet black before kick-off). Both BBAFC teams are looking forward to the challenge that Bay Olympic will present and welcome the opportunity to showcase their football skills in front of our home crowd. The support given to the teams last weekend was a-may-zing, long may that continue.

Good luck to both teams, and to the officials (out comes the old cliché "let football be the winner on the day"). Speaking of the refs, I heard that God and the Devil were having an argument, and Satan proposed a football game between Heaven and Hell to resolve the dispute. God pointed out that it wouldn't be a fair match because all the good players go to heaven. The devil smiled, replying, "Yes, but we've got all the refs."

Please join us in the clubrooms for the after-match celebrations, a cold drink, and a tall tale or two.

Cheers
Andy Pullar - Club President

A Word from the DOF

My name is Sander Waterland, I am the Director of Football at Bucklands Beach AFC. At BBAFC, we recognize that our youth education is the future of the club. One of the most important aspects is to develop and educate youth players in to footballers who are suitable to play football in various systems when they are seniors.

We have a clear pathway for both Women's and Men's. We offer multiple Premier grades for boys and girls in Junior Football and Metro and Conference leagues for the Youth Football.

Our philosophy clearly defines the pathway from Junior Football (9th to 12th grade) to Youth Football (13th to 17th grade) to Senior Football.

In choosing 1-4-3-3 the system has proven to the develop the most youth players in to good footballers who can function in multiple systems when they're older. The benefits of playing 1-4-3-3 is short distances between players and everyone spread out on the field is the ideal system to develop wingers and good attacking based football.

The focus is Team based in the club, how we are developing as a team of course and still focusing on individuals as well.

We are working in developing players in a 1-4-3-3 system in to a 1-3-4-3 system when we have the ball. Everything we do in the youth teams is in line with what the first team does.

Whenever you see a BBAFC youth team you'll see them playing the same style as our Men's First team.

Sander Waterland - Director of Football

Message from the Coach

I would like to welcome everyone to Lloyd Elsmore Park for our first home game of the 2019 season. It is an exciting time for the club and we are looking forward to what the 2019 season will bring us. I would like to congratulate Murray Saunders and the team for the amazing job they did last year in getting the club promoted into the Div One. The squad for this year has a mix of players from last year and some new faces which have already fitted well into our team.

Welcome to the Bay Olympic team coached by Paul Marshal. Bay Olympic will surely be pushing themselves to get back into a premier league for 2020 season. They have recruited an experienced, quality group for this season. A fantastic challenge for our team to play against Bay Olympic in our first home game of the season.

We had a successful start to the 2019 season with a thrilling 4:3 away win against our rivals Fencibles United last weekend. Our team played some good football through the game and we believe it will only get better game by game this year. We are hoping that we will attract more people in East Auckland to come support our team this season!

Enjoy the game
Rudy Mozr - Head Coach

BBAFC Jammin

To the tune of Coldplay's "Yellow"

We're Bucklands Beach
We are the team for you
We've got the game for you
Wearing blue and yellow

4-3-3

That's the shape we play
Blowing teams away
Wearing blue and yellow
Yeah, Yeah, Yeah

We're the Beach
And we're here to play
We're the Beach
Don't stand in our way
Scoring goals – that's what we're here to do

That's what we're here to do...

Halftime Humour

Why didn't the dog want to play soccer?
He was a boxer.

Why did Cinderella get kicked out of the soccer game?
She ran away from the ball.

What do you call a woman stood between two goal posts?
Annette

Why did the coach give his players lighters?
They lost all their matches.

What position do ghosts play in soccer?
Ghoulie.

Why was the soccer field wet on a sunny day?
The players dribbled all over it.

Why don't grasshoppers watch soccer?
They watch cricket instead.

Phin's Blog

Congratulations from Phins HQ to the first team with their round one 4-3 win over Fencibles last weekend! The result sent The Phins, the club, the people of Bucklands Beach and dolphins around the country into extreme states of pandemonium. East Auckland is yellow (it always has been hasn't it?) and there were people celebrating the W from Saturday afternoon right through to Sunday afternoon.

If you don't know much about The Phins, then grab a bottle of suds and get comfortable. I thought I'd use this as an opportunity to educate.

It all started when two C- students (at best) in their first year at University came up with the idea of putting together a footy team. It is important to note these boys only went to University to eat their lunch. A classic case of buying more time to decide what to do with their lives, knowing full well that they would both be bullied too badly if opting to enter the trades. 4 years of getting your parents off your back and being paid weekly by Mr Key, they obviously grabbed the chance with both hands. I'll leave you to work out who the two mediocre University students were. If you're the 5th caller with the correct answer we have a goodie bag for you.

The boys got talking to old friends and the idea gained traction. Before you know it there was 16 blokes from a few friends' circles registered into Div 7. The Phins name came around from a group of our rugby mates who were in shock that BBAFC's emblem was a dolphin and they were quick to identify it as quite a feminine animal. Instead of saying "are you playing footy today?" they'd ask "are you playing for the dolphins today, god that is a shocking emblem", this turned to "are you playing Phins today" and the Phins name derived from this. I plan to pass the legacy on and name my 3 sons Finn, Phin and Dolph if the ol' hugs and kisses will allow it.

The first EVER Phins game eventually rolled around in 2015. There were more beers than you could shake a stick at prior to the game as we turned up 2 hours early by accident (i promise) and what else can you do to pass time when you leave your pogo stick at home? We narrowly lost our first game 10-0 and to this day, the beers were never blamed but more acknowledged as it would have been a heavier defeat without them.

We gained new signings the following year and managed to win a Div 7 title before jumping to Div 3 where we have placed mid-table for 2 seasons. It's fair to say most of the players are past their prime but there were a few who weren't that bad once upon a time. Earl Crowley was on the BBAFC honours board in 2006 (the same year Rey Mysterio won the Royal Rumble), with Fern, Aiden Nel and Harrison playing just the one game of Chatham Cup in a nail biting 10-1 loss to Waitakere's first team in 2012 at the ripe age of 16. Nobody ever really got over it which is why it's still being talked about today in this game day programme of all places.

The new season's arrival has created excitement for everyone at the Club. The first team, the whipper snappers, the bar's supply and demand chain and everyone in between. The Phins are no exception. Preseason is behind us with two losses and a draw, but with a new signing and a couple of returning players, the boys are ready to rock and roll for their 5th crack at the big dance.

Hoo roo!
